

We Follow and We Serve

Commissioned by the Faithful Companions of Jesus on the occasion of their bicentennial anniversary

Aaron Hryciw

VERSES (♩ = ca. 60)

1. We thirst for one-ness with our God, to live for - ev - er in the
2. We thirst for emp - ti - ness, to be as ves - sels for our God to
3. We thirst for self - less - ness, to be o - be - di - ent to God's com -
4. We thirst for deep tran - quil - i - ty, a qui - et re - fuge from dis - light. In our hu - mil - i - ty and cour - age, with our Sav - iour we u - fill. With - in this pov - er - ty, we wait, a - lert, re - cep - tive to God's mands. Our on - ly wish is that God's will shall be ac - com - plished by our tress. With - in the shel - ter of God's hands we find a - bid - ing gen - tle - nite. Draw - ing close in char - i - ty, we serve our neigh - bours in their will. Of - fer - ing all we pos - sess, sur - ren - der - ing all that we hands. Work - ing through each dai - ly task, in con - tem - pla - tion of its ness. Gath - er - ing at Cal - va - ry, be - neath the Cross that strength - ens need. In sol - i - dar - i - ty, we heed God's voice with - in us. We are, we see our faith - ful - ness bear fruit as God trans - forms us. worth, we on - ly need to ask, "Does this work please our God?"

us, we go forth joy - ful - ly to serve our ris - en Sav - iour.

long for the grace to hear the call of God, and to do God's will — for - ev - er faith - ful - ly. With Christ as com - pan - ion, we fol - low and we serve, to bring a - bout the reign of God on earth.